

The NJ do not call list is working well. Unsolicited sales calls had dropped dramatically. My family can now have dinner together without the annoying interruptions from pushy sales people. Keep the NJ do not call list law in place.